

THE SEVEN HILLS SCHOOL

Hello Seven Hills Families!

I am Joree Rosenblatt, the Counseling Intern here at Seven Hills. I am excited to be back here for another school year in supporting the students in their emotional well being, as well as being a support to the staff and parents. I am here Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and am available to work with students in one-on-one counseling sessions and sometimes in a whole classroom setting.

In order for me to work with a child, I do need to have parent permission, from both parents. My goal is to get all these permission forms signed and returned to me by next Monday, September 12. Please have your child return them to their homeroom teacher.

Please note: Signing this form does not mean that you are signing your child up for counseling. It does mean that should your child wish to come and talk with me, or should a teacher refer your child to me, that I have permission to meet with them. I will always contact you should this be the case. You will always be informed if I meet with your child, and you and I will continue to have ongoing communication about how to best support your child through whatever they might be going through. While there is confidentiality in any therapy session, I do keep in open conversation with parents and invite them to always meet with me or at least be in touch with me, so as a team, we can work together.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me. I prefer you not leave me voicemail messages, as I do not check it as often, since I am only here part time. However, with email, I am always accessible and will do my best to get back to you promptly. Should it be the case, we could always set up a phone or in-person appointment.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation of getting these forms returned. It really is great that Seven Hills offers the opportunity for your child to receive the support to promote their emotional well being. I look forward to getting to know you as the school year progresses.

Best,

Joree Rosenblatt
